

First World War – Literature, Music and Memory

King's College, Cambridge, UK
11 – 12 July 2009

Booking Form

Accommodation

King's College can provide Bed & Breakfast accommodation (single, en suite) for the nights of 10, 11 and 12 July at £78.20, inclusive of all taxes. Places are limited and must be booked before 1 June 2009. Cheques for this accommodation should be made out to 'Kings College Cambridge Enterprises Ltd'

Cambridge is popular with tourists, and reasonably-priced Bed and Breakfast accommodation is often available elsewhere in the city if preferred. The city also has a good selection of hotels. Neither list is exhaustive. It is worth looking at the Cambridge Tourist Board website, which lists more establishments.

Picture by kind permission of the Imperial War Museum, London, (Negative no. Q 48454). Copying forbidden

Please note that the organisers of the conference cannot offer any guarantee as to quality or value for accommodation booked otherwise than at Kings College.

Catering

Tea or coffee and biscuits will be provided three times each day. .

The conference is situated on King's Parade, one of the most popular thoroughfares in the city. Within 150 metres of the College gates are any number and variety of restaurants, cafés, coffee houses and the like to suit all tastes. In order to keep costs down therefore, we will not be providing lunches on either day. There will be a Conference Dinner in the historic hall of King's College, before the recital on Saturday evening. Following the recital, a free wine reception will be held in the Hall.

Booking see overleaf >>

Your details:

Title:		Name
Contact Address:
			Postcode / Zip
e-mail:		If you do not wish this to be passed to other delegates, please ✓ here >
Contact telephone number:

Booking Details

Saturday 11 July Day attendance _____ @£21 per head

Conference Dinner Optional (2-course fork buffet) _____ @£21 per head

'The Dark Pastoral' Recital in King's College Chapel* No. of tickets _____

Sunday 12 July Day attendance _____ @£21 per head

Total

FREE
£

If you are attending the conference dinner, do you have any special dietary requirements?

.....

Please make cheques for above payable to 'Ivor Gurney Conference'

Bed & Breakfast Accommodation at Kings College (£78.20 per night)

Please ✓ Friday 10 July Saturday 11 July Sunday 12 July

Cheques for this accommodation ONLY should be made out to 'Kings College Cambridge Enterprises Ltd'

Please return this form to:

James Allum, WW1 Conference, 20A Pages Close, Histon, Cambridge CB24 9HF, UK

Tel: +44(0)1223 233 834

Email: james.allum@tiscali.co.uk

* Tickets for this event are limited to 100. Please be sure to book early.